COMMERCIAL LICENCE (Normal Licence)

Purchasing a K-Type font grants you non-exclusive rights to use the font commercially on paper, on film, online and embedded in documents.

The software may be stored on up to five workstations and output devices.

You cannot legally give the font to others or install it on their machines (with the exception of co-workers and your service bureau).

To place any K-Type font within other media will require an additional Enterprise Licence.

ENTERPRISE LICENCE (Extended Licence)

For Entrepreneurial use on an unlimited number of workstations and output devices, and where a font file is incorporated into a software product, each K-Type font will require an Enterprise Licence.

An Enterprise Licence is indefinite, but not exclusive.
